Suggested Methods of Instruction:

Discussion, demonstration, and supervision by the instructor in professional level studio techniques. There will be supervised involvement of the students in all studio functions pertinent to work in this field.

Suggested Methods of Assessment and Evaluation:

Periodic critiques of student production. Periodic reviews of student understanding and involvement in all aspects of studio operations.

Adopted Text at Time of Course Adoption/Revision:

To be determined by student focus for projects

Sequence of topics and time allowance are at the discretion of the instructor

Students in this course will be working in individual directions in their work, with a high degree of independence from traditional classroom structure. Time allowance and sequence of instruction will be a matter of consultation and agreement between each student and the instructor. Daily interaction and consultation between the instructor and the student will determine if and when adjustments to agreed upon time allowances and sequences are needed.
