Course Description:

Analyzes and appraises the works of a single author, or the works of several related authors. The course interprets these works by identifying important thematic structures within the work, discussing the critical reception of those works, as well as estimating the importance of the author's biography on the production and interpretation of these works.

Prerequisite (s): None

Co-requisite (s): None

Course Objectives:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Analyze the major works of an author or a small group of related authors
- Identify the themes, motifs, and techniques used and developed by the author throughout his/her lifetime
- Compare the author's early work to his/her later work to identify changes in themes, structures, motifs, and techniques.
- Identify the ways in which the author and his/her works have influenced not only other writers, but the literary canon itself.

Reasonable accommodations can be provided for students with documented disabilities. Please contact Learning Support Services to arrange for these (231)348-6687 or (231)348-6817, Room 533 SCRC.
